The Conference theme

„The nursing curriculum needs a cultural revolution: The why, the how, the what and the when of a global culturally competent curriculum“

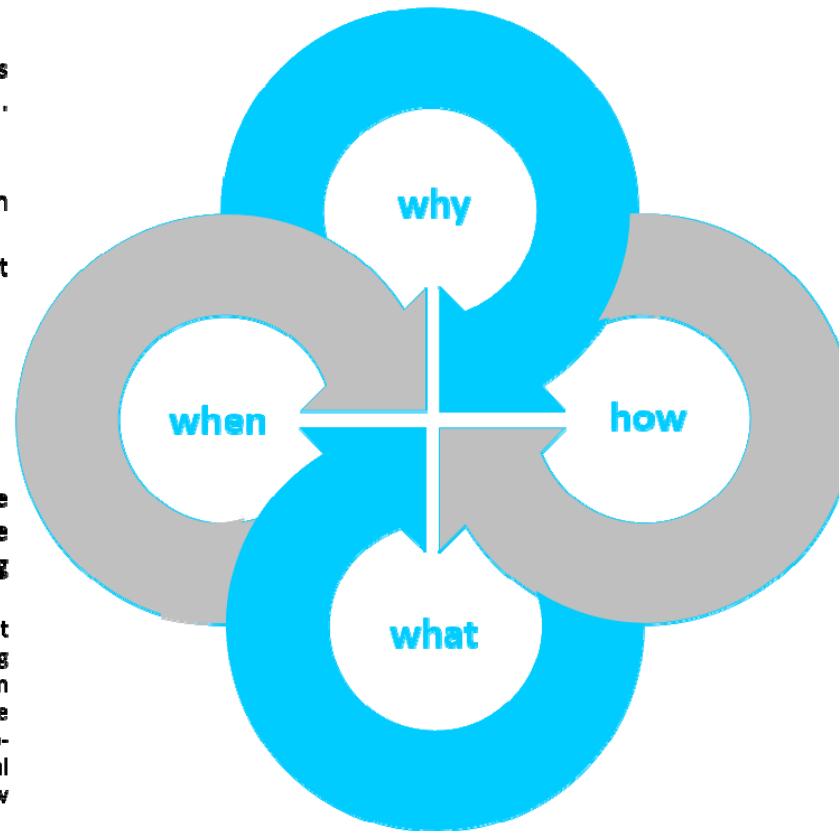

„The when“

How can we assess when this can be accomplished.
Influencing and influencers.
Key stakeholders.
The politics of transformation and change.
What time scale and what milestones should we have?

„The what“

What do we need to include in the curriculum to promote culturally competent nursing practice.

- To include presentations about content, relevant teaching methodologies, participation from other disciplines, service user participation, co-production, the use of social media and other new technologies etc.

„The why“

What is the evidence that a nursing curriculum focusing on cultural competence is needed.

- To include presentations on ethics, education, evidenced based practise and education etc.

„The how“

How can this be achieved.

- To include presentations about the politics of nursing, leadership in nursing, the popular opinion, teaching and learning approaches in theory and practice etc.
